

South Nassau presents:
TRUTH IN MEDICINE®

Does marijuana use affect driving?

A recent South Nassau Truth in Medicine Poll found concerns about recreational marijuana use & public safety.

- 74 percent are worried about people driving while impaired by marijuana
- 57 percent are unaware there is currently no field sobriety test to check for marijuana use
- 86 percent said tax revenue from recreational marijuana sales should be used to advance public health initiatives

For poll results and to learn more about recreational marijuana and public safety, visit southnassau.org/truth.

Sponsored by

Bethpage
Federal Credit Union

For more poll results and information about recreational marijuana and public safety, call 877-SOUTH-NASSAU or visit southnassau.org/truth.

This message is brought to you as a public service by South Nassau Communities Hospital and Bethpage.

